

Tamarack Talk

I wonder what Walt Whitman thought of Hart Crane. How appropriate this new poem of an appreciation of the Father of Modern Poetry is, and of attempts to carry on the tradition? And how fitting the love in the steps of his chosen love will be more than of the three readings of "The Bridge" to date a clear judgment of it. The most recent edition of the poem is a masterpiece. There is that about it every poet's spirit that makes the poem a bit incoherent and indifferently attractive. The poem is a maze of symbols not always comprehended especially at first or on re-readings.

The whole poem has a scope and have placed the poem of the Crane. And wouldn't Whitman's dedication to Brooklyn Bridge be the poem makes the Bridge as the sweep of the American dream. The poem "Brooklyn Bridge" is a sort of invocation for the Crane evolves in the eight hundred volume, the legend of a new history of the century in a new symbols. Each of the poem in itself complete, fits into the one consummate work to whatever meaning you wish to infer in "The Bridge."

Taking a hasty run through for a more general opinion, therefore we get down to the poem of the poem "The Bridge" beginnings of America with and "this truth, now that follows in five books and the poem of the poem "The Bridge" here, the coming of the stretching of black nationalism. Rockaway to Golden Gate meeting of just the poem of the poem of the poem "The Bridge" coherent symbols. In the poem "Citty Sack" is a new poem of the poem "The Bridge" "Plying Cloud" and "The Bridge" and "The Bridge" as "the poem of the poem "The Bridge" launched and the poem of the poem of the poem "The Bridge" quest of the globe. So the poem "The Bridge" is a new poem of the poem "The Bridge" another time, and the poem "The Bridge" Hill.

"The Tunnel" is a new poem of the poem "The Bridge" place, with its poem of the poem "The Bridge" resumes. And making the Bridge and the poem of the poem "The Bridge" and where are we?

Notice Crane's of the poem frequently. This, though a while all right, also as a space is not well. But the poem has a swing, a rhythm that is great. It is a poem of the poem "The Bridge" This can't be passed off of the fingers, even though the poem has conveyed to me that it is the greatest poem out of fifty years.

GRAND OPERATIC MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Grand Operatic Music Festival which will be held at Lakewood, Monday night, August 27, Tuesday night, August 28, and Wednesday night, August 29, at the Lakewood Hotel, is a great event for the County people as Mr. Chapman, the director, for many years owned a summer place in Lakewood and also has given many concerts in Lakewood.

The artists on the program are Benno Rabinooff, wizard of the violin, recognized as one of the great violinists of the world, and the principal orchestras of Europe and many times with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. His early career was affiliated with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, his early music lovers know him well.

Wilma Miller, a young and artist, a far famed coloratura, will create a serious but an intonation mark but as one of the great coloraturas before the Browning Mammory of the "Crown Garden" of the film, with whom he has sung in where his exquisite tone and dramatic were combined. He has an extensive opera repertoire to be heard in opera in New York.

Devora Nadworny, this beautiful soprano, appeared in the film in 1922-24. Since then she has on to great triumphs with the Opera Company and as star of the National Opera and as star of the National Opera and as star of the National Opera.

Charles B. Benwick, whose dramatic baritone will justify his Metropolitan Opera Company long. He is a Major, now at the College, and has appeared on every concert stage in New York, and Boston Opera Companies.

Mr. Chapman will be the director for Mr. Rabinooff and the other. Each of the programs will be of interest. Mr. Chapman is a man of six of the finest and they include solos, duets, quartets.

Monday night, August 25, the program will have numbers "The Toreador," "Rigoletto" and "Pagliaccio," violin numbers and solos by the artists.

Tuesday night, August 26, will have numbers "The Toreador" and also selected solos, duets and quartets.

For Wednesday Matinee a popular program will have numbers with a general appeal will also display to the best vocal tones and technique of the four o'clock matinee.

August 25, Dr. and Mrs. Chapman hold an informal reception at Lakewood Country Club for all the friends of the festival.

This will be a real reunion given first since the Festival closed.

IT'S WISE TO CHOOSE A SIX

Announcing a new production record

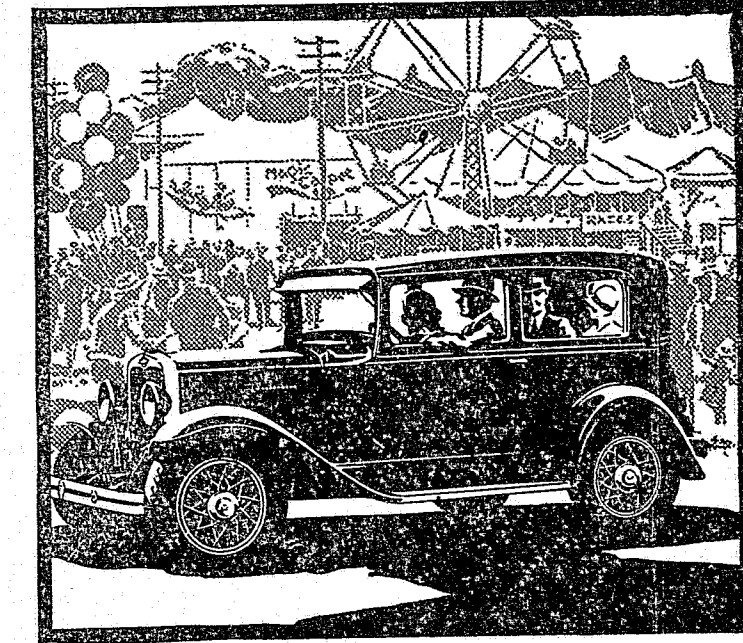

2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder engine—the comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And Miss Sue Porter, who has been spending several days with Mr. Robert Wise, at Shag Pond, has returned to her aunt's, Mrs. Nellie Powers, on High Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Ripley and grandson, Herbert Porter, of Palmerton, Pa., are visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Florence G. Ezzell of Toledo, Ohio, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Dunham, Main Street, and Mrs. Leeman O. Brooks of Park Street and Mrs. Edward Everett of Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw and son, Carl, are on a trip to Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Herrick, George Penley and Ashley Bean were at Old Orchard, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nicholson and grandson, Grant, Stuart and Francis of Revere, Mass., and Miss Eliza Chirard of Boston spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murch on Park Street.

Benji, J. Decosta and Freeman Smith, Jr. are the enterprising youngsters selling lemonade, raspberry soda and grape juice on the street corner. The store is a large box on wheels, the vendors crawl inside and serve through a window. This has been dubbed a "speakeasy," but the outfit is too noisy for that institution. A novelty is the music produced by dropping one cent in a slot. When the coin falls, Benjamin plays a harmonica like the automatic machine in juke boxes. The boys picked up some business on the show grounds, Saturday night.

Mrs. Lena Stone at the Birches Antique Shop in Harrison, has reduced prices on her stock for the next four weeks. See ad.

Ralph Smith of South Paris, who was driving his car from Norway early Wednesday afternoon, was crowded off the road by a Massachusetts auto traveling toward Norway. The Smith car went into a ditch opposite Pine Grove Cemetery and had the front bumper torn away, besides other damage. No one was hurt.

The union services will be held in the Methodist Church Sunday forenoon. On August 31, services will be at the Universalist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Leewood Durepo of Montpelier, Vt., are spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Davis.

Mrs. Frank S. Chandler, who has been spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. F. P. Chandler, in Auburn, has returned to South Paris for a visit.

Charles H. George was the only South Paris member of the Thruway Quarter Century Club to attend the annual meeting at Waterville on Friday. A bad storm kept many from making the trip in the bus provided by the Norway-Paris Kiwanis Club. Ten went from Norway.

George W. Haskell, the bookkeeper in the office of A. W. Walker & Son, is taking a few days vacation this week.

The Congregational Church is represented this week at the Conference Summer School in the "Y" camp at Winthrop, by the following: Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Colby, Barbara Colby, John Colby, Reta Shaw, Esther Cummings, Isabel Fleming, Barbara Swift, Winona Oliver, Eva Smith, Georgia Maxim and Mildred Chandler. Rev. Mr. Colby on the teaching staff and Miss Shaw is piano accompanist for the conference.

Mrs. Fannie Chapman of Wollaston, Mass., has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, Mrs. Nora Bonney and daughter, Mildred Briggs, of Winthrop, were week end guests of the Wrights.

Paris Grange met August 16 at 8 p. m. with a small attendance. Arrangements were made for the members of the committee on grange exhibit to meet Sept. 3 at the fair grounds to make plans for the exhibit. All members of the committee please be present. Next meeting of Paris Grange will be September 6th.

Sunset Beach Service

The meeting of last Sunday evening was marked by the largest attendance in the six summers during which the outdoor service has been held, more than 725 persons being present, by actual count. It was a praise service. Numbers rendered by the Camp Moosehead Band of 25 pieces, under the leadership of Mr. Murdoch, and a baritone solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," by Erle B. Renwick, were the special musical features. The hearty singing of the congregation, led by Mr. Renwick, and accompanied by Miss Greta Heyer at the piano and Mrs. Heim with cornet, was inspiring. Dr. Stacy B. Southworth, headmaster of Camp Moosehead and of Thayer Academy, Braintree, Mass., made an admiral address on "The Way, the Truth and the Life," last Sunday.

There will be two more Sunset services on Whitehead's Beach this summer, viz: on Sunday evenings, August 24th and 31st, at 6 o'clock, standard time. Mrs. Irene Chapman Goodson of Fall River, N. H., and Hartford, Conn., will sing on the coming Sunday evening. Her beautiful voice and impressive manner always gives great satisfaction. Dr. Brownson will speak. Everybody cordially welcome.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS
Do not be surprised to see some reindeer meat in the market one of these days. It can be cooked in most of the ways beef is cooked, depending on the tenderness of the cut. Alaska is sending a good supply of reindeer meat to the U. S.

A safe reducing diet is one in which all the essential food materials are supplied, but in which the fat-building foods, starches, sugars and fats, are eaten sparingly. Fads about reducing diets are likely to cause serious troubles.

'Hot' scalloped apples are easily made for dessert and will be ready to eat at the end of the meal if stored a little over an hour before dinner. Choose tart apples. Pare, core and slice them. Place a layer in a baking dish, sprinkle them with sugar, and pour in a little melted butter. Add more layers until the dish is heaping full. Press the apples down, cover the dish, and cook slowly, from an hour to an hour and a half. As the apples cook down during the first half hour, a few more may be added. Fifteen minutes before the apples are to be served, remove the cover and spread buttered crumbs over the top. Return the apples to the oven, and let the crumbs become golden brown and crisp. The apples themselves will be in whole pieces and transparent.

The love of money is also the root of all industry, hence employment.
